

Dr. G. N. GUTHRIE, Jr. DENTIST

All Work is Fully Guaranteed

Gibson Building, Down Stairs
Phone at Office and Residence

COOKEVILLE, - TENN.

Tennessee Central R. R.

Passenger Train Schedule at Cookeville

WEST BOUND	EAST BOUND
No. 1 3:28 p.m.	No. 2 12:13 p.m.
No. 3 2:50 a.m.	No. 4 1:07 a.m.
No. 5 6:30 a.m.	No. 6 7:59 p.m.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

No milk, no soda, no salt—just cold water and a small portion of lard with Banner Self Rising Flour and you have the best biscuits on earth. Try it.

P. L. Rippetoe of Route 4 made us a call on Monday.

J. J. Whittaker of Monterey was in the city Wednesday.

W. T. Ensor of Baxter Route 1, was in the city Wednesday.

J. H. Burris of Jackson County was on our streets Saturday.

John S. McBroom of Ensor was in the city Monday on business.

Circuit court convened here Tuesday for a two week's term.

See or write the Singer man and he will deliver one at your door on approval. Ask your neighbor who has a Singer.

March proposes to maintain its reputation for bad weather to the end.

L. F. Evans of Buffalo Valley transacted business here on Tuesday.

S. N. Barr of Silver Point transacted business here on Monday.

O. C. Conatser of Monterey has been here this week attending circuit court.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Maxwell have returned from Texas, where they had been for some time.

Mrs. Calvin Williams of Double Springs spent several days with relatives in this city last week.

Banner Self Rising Flour saves half the lard, makes better bread and is the most wholesome on the market.

Miss Pearl Peek returned to Pleasant Hill Monday, after a week's visit with relatives and friends.

J. S. Isom of Route 5 dropped in to see us and sends the Herald to Norman Isom and V. C. Dewese of Arkansas.

The safest man is the man who has a bank account. When you establish yourself with a good bank you feel secure and your mind is at peace. Try it today.
—First National Bank.

Horace Harp of Jeremiah has a Young Donald horse and fine jack that will make this season at moderate charges.

Oscar Bussell of this city has been appointed night watchman at the capitol at Nashville by Supt. Geo. T. Renfro.

P. M. Smith tells our readers about his splendid line of goods, including furniture and stoves. Read every word he says.

Dr. H. G. Roskind, successful eye specialist, will locate in Cookeville. Notice what is said about him elsewhere in this paper.

Get a sack of Banner Self Rising Flour and thus save 40c to 50c per sack and have better bread, or your money returned.
CEDAR CITY MILLS,
Lebanon, Tenn.

Patronize home industry. For instance Cookeville has an overall factory. Always ask for Putnam overalls. They are as good as the best.

Miss Bessie Bulah Smith of this city and her little sister Maymie attended Lewis Stone's birthday dinner Tuesday. There were about 80 present and they had a nice time.

Cracked cane seed and little grit for little chicks, mixed feed, oyster shell, big grit and sun flower seed for big chicks cheap at J. W. Gillem's.

W. H. Williamson and H. C. Lassing of Nashville, chief counsel and law agent respectively of the Tennessee Central Railroad Company, are attending circuit court here this week.

Attention of school teachers is called to the announcement of low rates over the Tennessee Central to the meeting of the Middle Tennessee Educational Association at Nashville in April.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will conduct an egg hunt on Saturday before Easter. Those desiring to take part will meet at the Crawford House and pay the ladies ten cents.

If it's a sewing machine you want why not buy a Singer, on long time, easy terms and payments. Everybody is satisfied that has a Singer. J. M. Judd, Salesman, Cookeville, Tenn.

Every time the revenue men capture a wildcat still in this section of the state the Nashville daily papers announce that it was near Cookeville. This is because the officers live here, and we wish to state that there has not been a still captured in Putnam county out of the several raided in March. The dailies should state where the stills are actually destroyed, and we insist on their doing so. The good name of our city and county require it.

Some of the Algood young people gave an entertainment at the schoolhouse Friday night. They were greeted by a fair sized audience and gave a clean and creditable show. Come again friends.

The legislature is again in session and will proceed to provide for the moral, mental and financial welfare of the people. Incidentally they will also squander every possible dollar and add millions to the burden of the taxpayer. In the eyes of the politicians all the people are good for is to vote and pay taxes.

E. H. Boyd, who is a law student in Cumberland University, spent Sunday with home-folks, remained over until Monday afternoon and was sworn in as a practicing attorney of the Cookeville bar, he having passed the State Bar examination in February and received license to practice in all the courts of the state.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arnold, Rev. and Mrs. John T. Price, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. D. Smith, A. W. Boyd, S. S. Webb, Miss Susan Quarles, Mrs. L. B. Allison and Rev. Fount Smith attended the spring session of the Cookeville Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. at Gordonsville last week. J. Arnold was elected moderator of the Presbytery.

L. A. Copeland has returned from Frederick, Okla., to this city, having had enough of the West. If every son and daughter of Tennessee who has gone West would return to their native state they would make it blossom like the rose. Come on back, friends. You love the old home place and your old friends, and they love you. Come and get a drink from the old spring—and stay with us.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our gratitude to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during the sickness and death of our mother.

LIZZIE AND RUTH APPLE.

Pierian Club

The "weather man" must have a grouch at the club for on the morning of the 29th inst. he tried himself. Once in a while he would smile and promise that if we would only trust him that at the right time he would be calm himself and let us go to Algood. He didn't. Only a few were brave enough to go, and how those few crow over the rest of us. They say that Mrs. Lee Epperson is the ideal hostess she has always been; that the open fire in the hall burns as cheerily as of old and that there was nothing left to be desired in the way of good cheer, good things to eat and a good time generally. And the thing that hurts worst is that we know it is true.

Mrs. John T. Price was an invited guest and Mrs. John Epperson, an honorary member, was present.

REPORTER.

HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

Free Magazine

We have finally completed arrangements by which we can send the National Monthly free to any person who sends us 50c for two subscriptions to the Herald. This is an unusual offer as the magazine costs a dollar. Every reader can get some one to join them and thus get a fine illustrated magazine a year free.

Route 1

J. W. and J. R. Warren of the Warren Mercantile Co. have returned from Nashville, where they bought a nice lot of spring goods.

They are putting up a shuttle machine at the Warren Mercantile Co. store and are ready to buy all the dogwood timber the people will bring in at $6.00 a cord.
X.

DR. W. S. McCLAIN

(OSTEOPATH)

Telephone No. 184

COOKEVILLE, TENNESSEE

Office Next Door to Gainesboro Telephone Co.
No Charge for Examination.

L. M. MYERS LAUNDRY

FIRST CLASS WORK GUARANTEED
Leave your work at Dr. Ragland's store
COOKEVILLE, TENN.

Bicycle Supplies

In Stock and Repairing Done by expert workmen. Bring in your wheels and get ready to enjoy the Spring riding.

M. H. BORDEN, Cookeville